Voting Rights and Proxies

1. A member entitled to attend and vote at a Meeting is entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and vote on behalf of that member.
2. A duly appointed proxy need not be a member of the Company. This form should be signed by the member. If a joint holding, either member may sign. If signed by the member's attorney, the power of attorney must have been previously noted by the Company or a certified copy attached to this form. If executed by a company, the form must be executed in accordance with the member's constitution and the Corporations Act.
3. Corporate Shareholders should comply with the execution requirements set out on the proxy form or otherwise with the provisions of Section 127 of the Corporations Act. Section 127 of the Corporations Act provides that a company may execute a document without using its common seal if the document is signed by:
 - directors of the company;
 - a director and a company secretary of the company; or
 - for a proprietary company that has a sole director who is also the sole company secretary – that director.
4. For the Company to rely on the assumptions set out in Section 129(5) and (6) of the Corporations Act, a document must appear to have been executed in accordance with Section 127(1) or (2). This effectively means that the status of the persons signing the document or witnessing the affixing of the seal must be set out and conform to the requirements of Section 127(1) or (2) as applicable. In particular, a person who witnesses the affixing of a common seal and who is the sole director and sole company secretary of the company must state that next to his or her signature.
5. Completion of a proxy form will not prevent individual shareholders from attending the meeting in person if they wish. Where a Shareholder completes and lodges a valid proxy form and attends the meeting in person, then the proxy's authority to speak and vote for that Shareholder is suspended while the Shareholder is present at the meeting.
6. Where a proxy form or form of appointment of corporate representative is lodged and is executed under power of attorney, the power of attorney must be lodged in like manner as this proxy.

7. To vote by proxy, please complete and sign the proxy form enclosed and send the proxy form by:
- post to One Asia Resources Limited, Level 2, 175 Flinders Lane, Melbourne; or
 - facsimile to One Asia Resources Limited on facsimile number +61 3 9614 8009
- so that it is received not later than 11.00 am on 22 May 2019 Melbourne Australia time.

Proxy forms received later than this time will be invalid.

8. Chapter 2C of the Corporations Act requires information about you as a member (including your name, address and details of the Shares you hold) to be included in the public register of the entity in which you hold securities. Information is collected to administer your Shareholding and if some or all of the information is not collected then it might not be possible to administer your Shareholding. You can access your personal information by contacting the Company at the address or telephone number shown on page 1.

Voting and required majority

For the purposes of regulation 7.11.37 of the Corporations Act, the Directors have set 11am Melbourne time on 22 May 2019 as the time and date to determine holders of the Company's Shares for the purposes of the AGM.

Share transfers registered after that time will be disregarded in determining entitlements to attend and vote at the AGM.

In accordance with the Corporations Act, for the resolution to be effective:

- (i) the resolution must be passed at a General Meeting of which not less than 21 days written notice specifying the intention to propose the resolutions has been given (satisfied by this Notice); and
- (ii) ordinary resolutions must be passed by more than 50% of all the votes cast by Shareholders present and entitled to vote on the resolutions (whether in person, by proxy, attorney or representative).
